HOUSE COMMITTEE ON BUSINESS AND LABOR

February 1, 2001

REP. BITNEY asked REP. FORRESTER to clarify the potential risk of conflict of interest he saw in the bill. REP. BITNEY said he had been in the real estate field for 20 years. In his experience, he had observed home inspectors to be very handy and capable. He noted, when they are able to come in and make a repair, they are probably the quickest and cheapest means of repair. REP. BITNEY said time is of the essence in real estate transactions and delay can often kill a deal. Mr. Forrester replied he had been in real estate construction for 35 years and he knew of no shortage of contractors to do work in the Billings area. He said the two, inspection and repair, should not be tied together, because the inspector should not have a financial interest in the inspection.

REP. LAIBLE asked Mr. Assen how many home inspectors there were in the state. Mr. Assen said from looking at the Yellow Pages he estimated there were 51 or 52 home inspectors, and his organization had 18 members. REP. LAIBLE asked who contracted for the inspection. Mr. Assen said it was mainly a service for the buyer and that the major requests are from buyers. He said he puts his brochures for home inspection in real estate offices. REP. LAIBLE asked if the inspection included a termite inspection. Mr. Assen said no but if signs of termite damage were seen, he recommended a termite inspection. REP. LAIBLE asked if, after the inspection, that was the end of the inspector's responsibility. Mr. Assen said it depends on the individual inspector and his company prohibits its inspectors from making recommendations of repair people.

Closing by Sponsor:

REP. FORRESTER said this bill goes a long way to correct the problems and would be a good addition to the 1999 bill.

Proponents: Jan Van Riper, State Auditor's Office

Mark Nelson, self

Roger McGlenn, Independent Insurance Agents of Montana

Al Pontrelli, Montanan Association of Insurance Agents

Opponents: None

Opening Statement by Sponsor:

REP. WILLIAM PRICE, HD94, Lewistown, said this bill is a re-codification of insurance laws to create uniformity with the way other states license. This would bring Montana in compliance with the national act and permit Montana to use as a central registry the national register of the National Association of Insurance Providers. He told the committee that 29 states must pass the law on or before February 12, 2001.

{Tape : 1; Side : B; Approx. Time Counter : 0}

Proponents' Testimony:

Ms. Van Riper stated the bill was proposed at the request of the State Auditor. She said the bill will put into statute what the state already does in reciprocity with other states. She said when Montana residents want to be licensed in other states they will reciprocate. She said the bill also allows the state to do their part in the central registry capacity.

EXHIBIT (buh26a02)

She presented written testimony from Gregg Van Horssen.

EXHIBIT (buh26a03)

Mr. Nelson said this bill tries to get uniformity in insurance licensing and will keep the federal government from taking over.

Mr. McGlenn said he strongly supported the bill and thanked the auditor's office for bringing the bill. Mr. McGlenn noted he was licensed in six states even though he did not sell insurance. He said there is a tremendous difference in each state's cost which ranged from $100-$850.

Mr. Pontrelli , representing the 450 members of his organization, said he favored and supported the bill.

Opponents' Testimony: None

Questions from Committee Members and Responses: None

Closing by Sponsor:

REP. PRICE thanked the committee and urged them to pass the bill.

{Tape : 3; Side : A; Approx. Time Counter : 0}

Mr. Driver said extending the freight and dumbwaiter inspection to the rest of Montana would give the rest of the state that which the State of Montana already recognizes a need for.

Ms. Lenmark said she was also speaking for Jon Metropoulos. She noted if this bill was passed, it would enhance the safety of the individuals her company insures. She noted a reduction of losses would result in a reduction of premiums.

Opponents' Testimony: None

Informational Testimony: Jim Brown, Department of Commerce, said there is no fiscal impact yet, but it would require one FTE and one .5 FTE.

Questions from Committee Members and Responses:

REP. MATTHEWS asked how much an inspection fee would cost. Mr. Brown said the fee would be $100 for elevators and $70 for lifts.

REP. HIMMELBERGER asked about the process of bringing old buildings up to standard which included adding gates. He asked what the cost would be for that. Mr. Val replied, depending on the size, a gate would run about $700 plus installation cost. Some features on older elevators are grandfathered in, he added.

Closing by Sponsor:

REP. JACOBSEN told the committee the vertical conveyance systems of Montana need a closer look, and HB437 will do that.

EXECUTIVE ACTION ON HB417

Motion/Vote: REP. PRICE moved that HB417 DO PASS. Motion carried unanimously.

HB 417 INSURANCE LICENSING

WHAT DOES THIS BILL DO?

- It puts into statute what we already largely do with respect to nonresident insurance agent licensing. Montana currently has reciprocal agreements with most other states for nonresident agent licensing. It codifies procedures so agents licensed and in good standing in their home state (a state that has a substantially similar law) must be granted a license in Montana upon submitting the proper application.
- It also allows Montana to participate in a nationally centralized non-resident producer licensing registry.

WHY DO WE WANT TO DO THIS?

- In 1999, Congress passed the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, part of which dealt with nonresident insurance agent licensing. The Act says that a majority of states must pass reciprocity provisions by November 2002. If a majority fails to adopt reciprocity provisions, then the federal government would take over all nonresident agent licensing.
